DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendments, filed 5/9/2005, have been fully considered and reviewed by the examiner. The examiner notes the cancellation of claims 7-9 with the addition of new claims 10-11. Claims 10-11 pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7-9 have been considered but due to their cancellation the arguments are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for providing an evacuating means between a plurality of shut-off valves in series, does not reasonably provide enablement for only a pressure gauge between the plurality of shut-off valves in series. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. It appears from the specification the pressure is reduced between two shut-off valves to detect gas leakage and it is unclear how a simple pressure gauge is capable of reducing the pressure between the shut-off valves. While the specification appears to be enabled for providing an evacuation means, it appears as though the evacuation means is needed to provide the reduced pressure.

The dependant claim does not cure the defects of the claim from which they depend.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 requires a pressure gauge or an evacuating means between the plurality of shut-off valves but also requires a step of reducing the pressure between the plurality of shut-off valves. It is unclear how to reduce the pressure between the shut-off valves using a simple pressure gauge and it more reasonably requires the presence of an evacuating means to accomplish the reduction of pressure.

Claim 10 requires the reduction of pressure between a plurality of shut-off valves to facilitate detection of gas leakage in the shut-off valves, but does not positively recite the detection of the gas leakage, which has been regarded as the invention. The phrase "to facilitate detection" does not require the detection to take place and therefore only requires reduction of pressure between the valves with no necessary detection of gas leakage.

Art Unit: 1762

The dependant claim does not cure the defects of the claim from which they depend.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
